Trapped With An Alpha In Heat (Werewolf Shifter Mating Erotica, Erotic Paranormal Romance)

Synopsis

Lona was quiet girl with a scarred past. When she meets Auden, an arctic wolf shifter with an icy personality, her world turns upside down. Exotic, handsome, and used to being sought after, he always remains fully in control. But something about Lona is getting to him, causing Auden's sex drive to consume his whole consciousness, turning him into a vicious creature of pure lust. When a raging snowstorm traps them both in a forest cabin, the high-ranking wolf unwillingly begins to lose control of the beast within. Now the gorgeous beast wants Lona, and will stop at nothing to mate with her, whether by seduction or force. Trapped with an alpha wolf before the full moon, Lona will find that he can be very seductive... and very forceful. But will this reluctant virgin give in to the well-endowed alpha wolf's overpowering desire to claim her? Warning: This 12,000 word short story is an erotic romance containing long and graphic scenes of sexual seduction, a werewolf imprinting a reluctant girl as his mate, and dirty hardcore sex. Adults only.

Customer Reviews

I would have given this 2 1/2 stars but boosted it to a 3 because while I felt it had some merit to it although not fully realized. (some spoilers) The beginning of the story was going along fine. I was getting it. I was into it. Then all of a sudden it felt like the author went on "high speed" , rushing to the finish and I was left behind going "uh ... wait a minute .." While the author attempted to flesh out her characters she didn't give them any chance to grow within the story. The main "Lycan" character, Auden started off as a very arrogant, rather egotistical, quite unlikable guy and then suddenly he changes into a soft, romantic, "I will woo you and win you" guy? What's up with that? And our other main character, Lona, goes from demur, "by the books", "just doing my job" girl to "oh, by the way, I'm a Lycan too and I can beat your butt if I want to"? What?? Add to this we have "mom" who is mentioned several times but not really given much merit and then we have "hey, meet my dad, the Lycan who chose to stay as a wolf all the time but I come to visit now and then". The final "seduction" and giving in to primal desires scene was rushed and did even make me raise one eyebrow in interest or "ahhh". The main story idea (plot) was a good one and could have made for a good story if it had been given time to grow and let more details fill in the gaps. As it stands, it was not that interesting and left me looking for something with more "meat" to it. I think the author should go back and develop the story and characters a bit more. It could be a really good story if given some work.

A bit short but still a good read. Had some good scenes as well and the love bits were pretty descriptive. Thanks!
