The Conspirators (Illustrated Edition)

Synopsis

The Conspirators, or The Chevalier D'Harmental. A quick read compared to The Count of Monte Cristo or The Three Musketeers trilogy, Dumas manages to jam enough action and storyline into the novel to make it worth the read. Despite being a weaker work in Dumas' bibliography, it displays the craftsmanship in blending action and suspense that were so common to his novels.

Customer Reviews

Dumas again brings the reader into the dynamic plots between France, Spain and England. One has to appreciate Dumas's style. Readers who liked the Count of Monte Cristo will enjoy this book; drama right up to the last paragraph. . .
