No Stable Too Small

Synopsis

Here's a collection of humorous, down-to-earth plays that bring a fresh perspective to the Christmas story through such creative devices as imagining the thoughts and feelings of fringe characters (like an innkeeper or a servant to one of the magi) or by updating the story with contemporary settings and characters. No Stable Too Small offers a variety of practical material for any situation, ranging from shorter plays with small casts and lines that can be easily mastered by younger children to more elaborate pieces with sophisticated themes for older children and adults. And they're ideal for use with today's young people -- the dialogue reflects the way they really talk, yet never detracts from the biblical message. These flexible scenes offer a mix of speaking parts for all age groups, from preschool through adult, and are especially valuable for small congregations that lack the resources to mount large-scale productions. No sets are required, and only simple costumes and minimal props are needed. The plays can be performed by smaller churches with as few as 8-10 cast members, or parts can be easily divided to accommodate groups as large as 25-30. And with a running time of approximately 20-25 minutes each, it's easy to fit them within a Christmas Eve or Advent Sunday worship service. Some of the charming presentations include: * Love Finds a Way* It Wasn't the Hilton, You Know* Christmas Eve at Angel School* Because God Said So, That's Why* No Small Parts* ""Unto Us a Child Is Born""... Next on Omar* Miracles? No Problem!...and eight more! Lois Anne DeLong is currently a freelance writer and editor in Bay Shore, New York. Wanted an appropriate Christmas pageant for our annual church program. This one didn't meet my expectations. I like what I call pageants with little or no practices. I discovered that my 25 years of religious education and directing over 13 pageants provided me with more resources. It was never used and just put on the shelf.

Our Sunday School class did one of the plays and we really enjoyed working together. Thanks for putting this together for us to proclaim God to the visitors at our Christmas program.

Great!

Good resource for Christmas pageants!
